INFORMATION FOR PARENTS / GUARDIANS

1. Parents are required to enrol their child in a suitable centre for the learning of Non-Tamil Indian language as it is not provided in schools. Currently, the Board for the Teaching and Testing of South Asian Languages (BTTSAL), a community body, oversees the delivery of NTIL instruction and assessment across school levels. Please inform the school of your enrolled centre within 1 month from the approval date.

2. Non-Tamil Indian languages will not be offered at the higher mother tongue level at the PSLE and GCE 'O' and 'A' levels.

   Recognition of NTIL Grade for In-School Progression

3. Only grades given by BTTSAL or tutors registered under BTTSAL would be recognised by MOE and recorded in school results for in-school progression.

   Upon promotion to secondary school and pre-university

4. Students who have been granted approval to offer a Non-Tamil Indian language will continue to offer the same language at GCE 'O' and 'A' level.
